

THE TREND

By Daliah Singer

Out of Office ... Sort of

Remote living has freed many of us to work or study anywhere—so we might as well do just that. Here are four properties that combine the fun of a resort vacation with the amenities to help the whole family keep up back home.

The Ritz-Carlton, Kapalua Maui, Hawaii

With this newly renovated Ritz's OOO (Out of Ordinary) package, professionals moonlighting as beach bums can work from a luxury poolside cabana equipped with a fridge, TV, small table, and couch. Need anything else? A business concierge is just a phone call away. Kids, meanwhile, get their own workstations (and complimentary after-school snacks) at the new Ka Lumi A'o Learning Lab. Be sure to make time for some B.E., or beach education, a limited-time promotion that includes two family-friendly excursions, such as an underwater photography class or a hunt for turtle tracks. Packages from $999 per night, available through June 21, ritzcarlton.com

Royalton Splash Punta Cana Resort & Spa Dominican Republic

It's going to be hard to focus on work with one of the Caribbean's largest waterparks outside your window. That said, the all-inclusive Royalton's Upgrade Your Office package should help you maintain some semblance of productivity. Guests on the job have around-the-clock access to a private lounge, as well as a business center and portable power banks for working poolside. For children and teens, there are quiet learning spaces for remote study and a supervised kids club—plus, you know, those waterslides. Packages from $900 per person for a 14-night stay, royaltonresorts.com

Hotel San Luis Obispo San Luis Obispo, California

The Hotel SLO's Learn, Play, Explore package helps harried parents who've been caring for their children while working full-time find a California Coast respite. A daily dining credit that includes boxed lunches or room service makes meal planning a cinch, and twice-a-day rooftop yoga sessions will help relieve stress. Plus, enriching family activities abound, such as whale-watching and guided walking tours of the historic town, which is home to a 1772 Spanish mission. Packages from $1,800 for a five-night (Sunday to Thursday) stay, hotel-slo.com

Chileno Bay Resort & Residences, Auberge Resorts Collection Cabo San Lucas, Mexico

The Work, Learn, and Play package at this 22-acre Baja California resort has perks for both kids and parents. Advantage Testing, a U.S.-based private tutoring service, is available to help students either in person or virtually, and children have complimentary access to snorkeling tours and kids and teens clubs. With the help of a business concierge, grown-ups can work on their to-do lists from a private office cabana or their in-room workspace. Packages from $2,018 per night for a family of four in a two-bedroom villa, seven-night minimum stay, aubegeresorts.com

Courtesy of The Ritz-Carlton (Ritz); Zoe Alexopoulos (Royalton); Tanveer Badal (San Luis Obispo); Courtesy of Auberge Resorts Collection (Chileno Bay)